WINDSOR - Canada's Ambassador City

Windsor, Ontario, is Canada's largest city on the U.S.-Canada border and situated on the busiest waterway in the world, the Detroit River. During the 1960 season (262 days), vessel passages in both directions on this river totalled 17,832 — an average of 68 passages per day, or one vessel every 21 minutes carrying a total of over 108 million tons of cargo. On this waterway ply ships of great lengths, some as long as 729 feet, carrying iron ore, coal and grain through this great inland water route, the Great Lakes System.

It is a geographical coincidence that Windsor is south of the United States. Between Detroit (Metropolitan population 3,890,000) and Windsor there cross in both directions each year over 20 million persons (21,938,838 in 1960), close to 5 million (4,882,473 in 1959) of whom are American visitors to Canada.

Windsor ranks fifth in Canada's great industrial communities (population 117,629, metropolitan 192,144), manufacturing a wide variety of products in 455 industries. During the past year there has been a monthly average of 29,427 people employed in Windsor area industries. While Windsor is well known for automobile manufacturing (Chrysler, Ford engine parts, General Motors engines), it produces many other products such as a wide range of pharmaceuticals and other nationally advertised products (Anacin, Burroughs Machines, "Windsor Salt", Tums, Toledo Scales, Grape Nuts Flakes, Swans Down Cake Flour, Hiram Walker's "Canadian Club", Champion Spark Plugs, etc.), foods and many other items. According to official estimates for 1960, Windsor area industry spent 42.7 million for investment in new industrial construction, machinery and equipment. This is an increase of 57% over actual ($24.8 million) expenditures the previous year.

During 1960, eleven new industries located here, five new plants were built and there were 36 plant expansions included among 112,361 square feet of new industrial space constructed during the year. Over a nine-year period, this represents an average industrial growth of 1.84 acres of new factory space each year and includes erection of 51 new plants and 329 major expansions. An annual average of 905 new homes have been built in Windsor area during the past five years.

This area is well served by five main railways and one terminal line; a transcontinental air Line (Trans-Canada Air Lines); and highway transport facilities. An extensive expansion programme is being completed at Windsor Airport ($1,000,000 terminal building — $1,340,000 additional in runways). Windsor, too, is determined to realize every advantage of the St. Lawrence Deep Waterway for its port which now provides Great Lakes transportation. A Harbour Commission is now in operation and local facilities are being expanded and improved.

Windsor is maintaining its pace with the amazing growth of Canada and is making plans for its optimistic future. The City has expanded since the end of World War II under a zoning system to protect the stability of residential, commercial and industrial properties. The community is developing a programme of progressive capital expenditures during the near future and has, as of January 1, 1959, inaugurated the Council Manager plan of municipal government.

With all recent improvements (to December 31, 1959) costing $11.17 million, Windsor has the third lowest ($143.64) per capita gross debenture debt in Canada, according to latest (1959) statistics.

Windsor recently embarked upon the first project (residential) in its redevelopment programme involving about 20 acres and costing over $6 million.

Windsor has completed construction of a municipal courts building and has started plans for development of over 1,200 feet of river front property in the downtown area where there was recently erected a civic auditorium and convention hall. The Hiram Walker Historical Museum on the site was opened May 7, 1958.

Excellent facilities exist for education of 41,090 students (43 primary, 8 secondary schools, a technological institute and a university — Assumption University of Windsor with Essex, Holy Redeemer, Holy Name, Canterbury and University Colleges as affiliates); Western Ontario Institute of Technology opened here in September, 1958; a teachers' College is soon to be established here; recreation; and restoration and protection of health (4 hospitals; 1 sanitorium-T.B.); V.O.N. (Victorian Order of Nurses) and Red Cross units. All the basic voluntary, health, welfare and recreation agencies (18) are supported financially by the Community Fund of Windsor, established in 1947.

Now completed is a new City Hall to be fronted by an esplanade extending to Riverside Drive.

Windsor has 118 churches and 4 synagogues embracing a wide group of religious affiliations.

In the field of medicine and sociology, Windsor has given a generous share of leadership. In 1949, Windsor established the first Child Guidance Clinic in Canada. In 1919 there was established in the Windsor Area, the first amalgamated health unit in Canada comprising six communities. A larger unit for the entire metropolitan area is in process of formation. Windsor Medical Services, Inc., is the first doctor-sponsored, prepaid community medical plan in Canada. Prescription Services, Inc. (Windsor) is the first prepaid, voluntary medical prescription service in existence. The Windsor Cancer Clinic, opened in 1935, is one of the original cancer clinics sponsored by the Ontario Government. Windsor is one of the first four Ontario communities to establish (1954) homes for its senior citizens. At present there are 108 units for couples and 36 units for individuals.

Windsor and Essex County (total population 252,240) enjoy the news services of an outstanding Canadian newspaper — The Windsor Star (circulation 79,086); ten weekly newspapers; Radio Stations CBE (1550); CJSP (710) Leamington; CKLW (800) and CKLW-TV (9), the most powerful (325,000 watts) television station on the North American continent. In spite of an increasing volume of traffic, accidents in Windsor decreased further during 1960, with 2,146 accidents and 8 deaths. In 1951, there were 3,920 accidents and 10 deaths. Automobile registrations for 1959 totalled 55,695. Besides this traffic, there were, during the past year, 2,913,515 cars entering Canada here from the United States. Progressive traffic changes and off-street parking facilities are being constantly studied and improved.

Windsor's industry is well balanced with a prosperous agricultural community in Essex County, well known as the "Sun Parlour of Canada", where there are produced 33 different fruit and vegetable crops. Because of a favourable climate (average winter high 35, low 27; summer high 78, low 58) and a long growing season from average 208 days in northern section to 216 days in the south, with average of 165 frost-free days, the county produces fruits (apples, pears, peaches, cherries) and vegetables which reach markets 1 to 5 weeks earlier than any other area in Canada; corn, soy beans, wheat, oats, tobacco, sweet potatoes. Farms here have a higher per capita production than anywhere else in Canada.
